I am old school and love to use a good pen or pencil to journal and make my to-do lists. My go-to is a pencil so I can erase those mistakes. My absolute favorite product from Snifty is the steel barrel "Look Sharp" graphite pencil. It is compressed graphite (equivalent to 100 pencils) that never needs sharpening! In addition, it looks professional and comes with an eraser! Snifty also carries this same pencil for kids called the "Magic" pencil. This brand is always coming out with new innovative, trending items sure to inspire all of us, kid and adult alike!

We all have days where we need a little extra. My solution for those days is to reach for a Shower Burst from hydra Aromatherapy. They are made with pure essential oils and no artificial fragrances. They come in 14 different blends with different therapeutic benefits like stress relief and relaxation. My personal favorite is "Clarity". It is a blend of eucalyptus and peppermint oils that helps clear my mind, leaving me revitalized and invigorated. A little water and the humidity of my shower activates the essential oils and I can create a spa experience without leaving home. One shower burst lasts for multiple showers. They are my go-to product for self-care!

I am a long-time fan of anything Letterpress. I was introduced to it years ago by a colleague and enjoyed spending time with her in her studio, seeing how the magic happens. When you get (or sell!) anything Letterpress you can have faith that it was made with talent, love, and care for this amazing process. Combine that with Lisa of Sapling Press' timely, on point, and oh so funny greeting cards and small giftables and you have a sure winner. One of my buyer partners told me this when I let her know we repped the line now: "the first time I got their catalog I went to my cubicle and literally cracked myself up for hours while reading all the cards." We all need as much laughter as we can get these days, so my pick is Sapling Press!

Season after season I think, “how will they top this?” and sure enough The Darling Effect continues to deliver! They are the go-to brand for on-trend gift items that are perfect for any age. I love that they offer popular items such as drink tumblers and belt bags, but they make them even more DARLING with their own print designs! Also, if you didn’t know, The Darling Effect has some of the best Greek/sorority gifts! I appreciate that they listen to what the customers are looking for, follow forecast trends and research the up-and-coming ‘must have’ product! I can’t wait to see what darling ideas they come out with next!
