HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THE FRIEND
EVERYONE WISHES THEY HAD.

I don't like morning people.
Or mornings. Or people.

Some things are better
left unsaid, but I'm probably going to say them anyway.

Hospitality is making your guests feel at home, even if you wish they were.

I can explain it to you,

I could give up shopping,
but I'm no quitter.

SHOP LOCAL, ORDER LOCAL

REPS are LOCAL
too

Independent retail needs everyone's help. It's inspiring to see that supporting Main Street has become a rallying cry via the "Shop Local" movement aimed at consumers. But who else has an important role to play in supporting many of the 4.6 million retail establishments in the U.S.? Local sales reps. Often running their businesses from their kitchen tables, sales reps go the extra mile to meet the needs of retailers and their local shoppers — learning customer preferences, introducing unique products, and truly listening to consumer needs. Sales reps are the often-overlooked lifeline of their communities, working hard to fill stores with new products and helping create local revenue so that every Main Street may thrive. Communities don't directly benefit from online shopping, but they benefit in countless ways from the loyal work of local sales reps. So let's embrace our local sales reps — the unsung heroes of independent retail.

GIFT FOR LIFE

Today, Gift for Life (GFL), the industry's longest-running, volunteer-led national charitable organization, is making an extraordinary impact through its partnership with World Central Kitchen (WCK), an organization dedicated to providing nutritious hot meals to communities impacted by crisis and conflict worldwide. WCK's vital work has relieved countless individuals, most recently by setting up emergency kitchens in Western North Carolina and Florida following devastating natural disasters. Our Vice-President of Operations and Marketing, Angela Schmook, is a GFL board member and recently had the opportunity to volunteer after Hurricane Milton in a WCK kitchen in Florida. Initially founded in 1992 in response to HIV/AIDS crisis, Gift for Life has united our industry to raise nearly $6 million over the years to support life-changing initiatives. Now, with a focus on WCK, the organization is harnessing the power of the gift and home industries to ensure that meals and aid reach those who need them most.
